Greeting

*It's hard to believe the condition the world is in
It's hard to believe the condition the world is in
You can't trust nobody and girl, you know it's a sin*
— Jimmy Reed, Found Love, 1960

Like legendary bluesmen of old, writers regularly go down to the crossroads of the imagination, bringing back useful prescriptions for living. When you can't believe the condition the world is in, you can trust writers to get you through.

What writers trust to get them through is the Writers Guild of America. The Writers Guild Awards celebrates its members by honoring excellence, vision and inspiration. We invite you stay with us for the B.B. King after party, which will also be a little like going down to the crossroads.

Foundation

"This is such an incredible opportunity. I am so thankful for this and cannot wait to meet the Collyer family and others who have made this fellowship possible. I also thank Joel Silvers for nominating me for this award, it was his insight and passion for screenwriting that fueled my own desire to make words and film matter." - Hailey O'Brien

"In a remarkably talented field of applicants, Ms. O'Brien impressed us with her dialog and construction, her ability to convey emotion, and her skill in handling challenging subject matter in a believable and compelling manner." - Marshall Brickman

The MCMF, funded by the Charles and Lucille King Family Foundation, and presented in partnership with the WGAEF is awarded to a undergraduate senior who plans to pursue a career in screenwriting upon graduation. The recipient receives a $10,000 stipend to write an original screenplay under the mentorship of a prominent screenwriter.

The Writers Guild of America, East Foundation's mission is to perpetuate the art and craft of storytelling, either by professionals or amateurs, through education and practical experience, on local, national and global levels. For more information, visit:
